Career Planning and Job Search Resources
For International Master’s and Ph.D. Students & Postdoctoral Scholars

Tuesday, October 6, 2015, 3:10 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.
114 South Hall

Looking for a job can be confusing and overwhelming. As an international student there are the added complexities of cultural differences, expectations, knowledge about employment laws and regulations, and procedures that must be followed to ensure lawful immigration status is maintained.

This workshop, designed specifically for international Master’s and Ph.D. students, and Postdoctoral scholars will provide you with the knowledge and tools to launch your job search. The workshop will cover:

- Steps for successful career planning
- Job search tools
- The importance of networking and how to do it
- Preparing a self-introduction
- Interview strategies
- Suggestions for your application materials (e.g., resume or CV and cover letter)
- Understanding CPT and OPT requirements

Workshop facilitators: Tammy Silver, Assistant Director, and Robin Ducatillon, International Programs Specialist, Services for International Students and Scholars (SISS); and Gwynn Benner, Coordinator, Career Services for Master’s and Ph.D. students, and Postdoctoral scholars at the Internship & Career Center (ICC).

Co-sponsored by the ICC and SISS. For other ICC workshops and events, please visit: http://iccweb.ucdavis.edu/graduates/Events.htm
